Juniors' Musical New Theatre to be Comedy Repeated Opened Next Week On Saturday Night

"Shame on Bunny" Will Be Given in Elm Hall

The office of the Junior Community Club was for days flooded with letters from many sources requesting the repetition of the most successful musical comedy ever given in Narberth. After due consideration, the Club decided to grant these requests at ELM HALL, SATURDAY, MAY 20, 1922, AT 8.30 O'CLOCK.

Don't fail to come and see this elaborate performance. Three acts full of life and action every minute. Inter-spersed with catchy songs rendered by the cast and supported by a chorus of 12 girls, all of whom are being taught by Mr. F. Ziegfeld.

You just couldn't miss the big Spanish scene, full of gipsy tragedy and passion. Watch Mr. Robert Fritz, the handsome hero, torn from the arms of his devoted girl, heartbroken to see Miss Augusta Waltham, Don't miss it.

Finally a five piece orchestra will accompany the performance and provide rhythmic dancing after the show. Get your tickets now. All seats $1.00.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING. Address by Dr. Norwood.

As Miss Helen Jones, President of the Juniors, remarked in introducing Dr. Robert Norwood, it is really an honor to have a man of his standing and authority in Narberth. The Juniors, for any one watching the crowds of Narberth's people into his church, St. Paul's Memorial, at Overbrook, on Sunday, will know that a great percentage of the town is well acquainted with the wonderful oratory of Dr. Norwood, as a preacher and lecturer.

Dr. Norwood's topic last Thursday evening, May 4th, when he addressed an audience at the Y. M. C. A. under the auspices of the Junior Community Club, was "The Discoveries."

Leading up from the Discoveries and Discoverers of all ages, and showing the remarkable results impregnated upon the succeeding centuries of all great discoveries since time began, Dr. Norwood made the nucleus of his lecture the resultant message received by the twentieth century from Darwin's great discovery of the "Origin of Species" made in the nineteenth century. That message, which proved to the world, in Dr. Norwood's mind, the infallible truth of the Unity of Mankind, will some day be the basis upon which all human difficulties, great and small will find solution. Until the world in its entirety recognizes each fellow creature as a brother, regardless of race, color or class, until men in complete selfishness, lay down arms, tools of battle, dispense with prisons and punishment, and until each human, knowing himself God made, and no different possibly from any of his God-made fellow beings can truthfully feel himself superior to no other creature of his kind, will the universe be in a position of world wide peace and Christianity.

Dr. Norwood's message, if seeming to approach Utopianism, was fortified by the convincing strength of his sincerity and his incomparable argument that, though the road of the Discoverer be a long and lonely one, never has there been a Discoverer whose eventual results spreading far in their effect have not exceeded many times the fondest hopes of the Discoverer's first dream. And thus, may it not be expected that the start of the Unity of Mankind, catching its first gleams from the radiance of Darwin's great discovery, will grow larger and brighter as in the years man recognizes in his fellow-being not a superior or an inferior, but an equal, divine in the possession of souls, the one as capable and able of expansion and development as the other.

The audience, needless to say, was as appreciative as Dr. Norwood's listeners always are, for when a man whose art comprises not only the powers of enunciation and fluency of speech usually attributed to great speakers, but likewise the keen sense of dramatic and poetic completeness which is Dr. Norwood's, the result cannot help but be an overwhelming acknowledgment to such genius.

There were 170 bundles of clothing and shoes, averaging 12 lbs. each, sent from Narberth for the Near East Relief.

Ardmore Enterprise Is Artistically Planned

Among the outstanding features of the Main Line's most pretentious and magnificent theatre are many that enjoy marked individuality.

The Heating and Ventilating System is the newest, most complete and successful process of continually supplying the house with fresh air that it is possible for the brain of man to conceive.

The air is changed every minute, or in other words, by means of the system installed, it is estimated that the air will remain in the building only one minute which time is required for its absorption, circulation and excretion.

The seating system has also been given much consideration. In placing the chairs on the floor, it is customary to leave twenty-eight inches of space between rows, or from the back of one chair to the back of the next row. But instead of trying to see how many seats could be jammed into a given space, comfort was the big idea, and a space of thirty-two inches has been allowed between rows from back to back. This will afford plenty of room for one's knees, and remove the necessity of arising to enable others to pass.

The seat person has also been considered, and extra wide seats provided to make ease of this situation. A number of the unusually large, comfortable leather chairs are being installed for use of theatre parties, and persons wishing additional comfort.

The additional devices and equipment for showing pictures are positively the best word in perfection, as well as projection apparatus.

The screen upon which the pictures will be projected, is another triumph in advanced achievement. It is not the ordinary curtain, with any of the numerous metallic finishes that are now common with the theatre-going public, and which dazzle and glare when illuminated with the intense light required in showing a picture. In fact, the screen which will be used in the new Ardmore Theatre is not a curtain at all, but is a decided departure from the usual silver sheet. It is the only screen of its kind existing in this part of the country; having been designed, erected, and treated with a secret process known only to the management of this Theatre, who stands back of it on a guarantee that it will positively eliminate all eye-strain, and reflect a clear and distinct vision from any angle, and not annoy or tire the most sensitive eye.

The proscenium or main curtain is a personal triumph in itself, and will attract unlimited attention from those who appreciated distinctly new creations. The curtain is made of an entirely new material, known as "Italian Gold-Plated Cloth," and the Ardmore Theatre has the individuality of being the first theatre in America to introduce this pretentious novelty and masterpiece.

REMEMBER THIS DATE!

Saturday, June 3rd.

At one of the rehearsals of the coming Senior Play "Billeted," the privileged few who were allowed in the assembly to expound their unfavorable criticisms found themselves lock jawed after the conclusion of the performance. As for the facts in the case, rehearsals are one-tenth of the real product.

A dance with really peppy music will follow the three act comedy.

Don't forget to attend the play at the High School building. The proceeds go to the Senior Class treasury.

Tickets can be secured at Betty's and the Drug Stores. 75 cents per ticket. $1.00 reserved seats. June 3rd, 1922, at 8.15 P. M.

THE ELIZA CATHCART HOME

The ladies of the Narberth Presbyterian Church have planned a wonderful concert for this home, to be given May 23rd, in Elm Hall. A baritone contralto from New York, with a well known harpist, will make a program most worth while and thoroughly enjoyable.

Remember the date, May 23rd, and bring the kiddies for there will be a special number for them. A full program will be in next week's number of "Our Town."

A Tribute To The Retiring President Of Community Club

Mrs. Batchelor Closes Second Term In Office

Mrs. E. C. Batchelor

After a term of two years, and as retiring president for a longer term, Mrs. E. C. Batchelor now retires as the President of the Community Club.

But one can not continue in the same office for a longer period than two years, according to the constitution of that body, and we have said that this president has acted for a longer term. This is the explanation. Back in 1920 the chair was unavoidably vacant; neither the president nor vice president were able to fill it. Mrs. Batchelor, at that time corresponding secretary, but was persuaded to add to her duties the work involved in acting as president, until the official president could resume her position. That period extended over many weeks.

It was during those weeks that she proved her ability as a presiding officer, for she had a variety of situations with which to cope. We recall that it was during that period of substituting as president, that the long talked of bazaar was "put over."

suffice it to say that when the official president's term expired, the club decided its new president should be the one who had served them so capably during its emergency.

Further, let us say that the gift and personality Mrs. Batchelor has brought into the club has made it more than two years wiser.

However, lest we should offend the one to whom we would but give some slight credit, we will refrain from eulogies, but must remind our readers of one living work of this retiring president is the town library now put forth by so many Narberth citizens. This library is the outgrowth of the literature department, which was formed through the efforts of Mrs. E. C. Batchelor.

COMMUNITY CLUB YEAR CLOSING WITH LUNCHEON TUESDAY

As Christmas is the time for family gathering, so this last meeting of the year over an informal luncheon is the home gathering of the Community Club. Every member of the Community Club family makes a great effort to be present at this jollification.

There will be the year's experiences to hear from all the mothers of departments. There are some very musical ones who can be depended upon to furnish entertainment. Some members are witty—they may be called upon to give toasts during the meal. After the luncheon is over, there will be the ceremony of uniting the brides of the coming year to their respective official companions.

On Tuesday, May 16, at one o'clock, the table will be spread. A place will be set for each one who has sent word to the home folks that she will be present.

RUMMAGE SALE

If you have any rummage will you please call Mrs. John B. Brooks, Narberth 1218, and she will have it called for. Often times we have discarded articles which we store away and which others would be glad to have and find a use for, so please keep the above date in mind.

TO MOTHER

I've seen many wonderful sights, wandering on my way. And I've spent such lonesome nights, and been weary through the day. I'm just longing for a mother's love, and I know she longs for me. Can't erase her loving face, it's the sight of all sights I want to see. Copied.

The above verse was copied from the back of a little restaurant given by "Mother" to her boy just before he sailed overseas.

It was originally copied from a postcard sent by some other boy's mother to her boy "somewhere in France." This card was one of a great many found in a large mail bag and left behind unopened by the "doughboys" the morning they went over the top in the Argonne Forest.

This sacrifice was no doubt the hardest many of the boys had to make. After waiting weeks and sometimes months for mail and news from home, and then to have to leave it back of unopened was a sacrifice greater than that of life to those who never came out that terrible struggle alive.

This card tells in a few words the story that to the heart of every boy who served during the war. When shot and shell were falling all around and it seemed as if the next one must be the one to send him back to "doughboys" it was a mother that the boy thought, and for mother that he prayed.

The Auxiliaries and Posts of the American Legion throughout the United States are urging every ex-service man and woman to write, telegraph or telephone to mother on Sunday if they cannot be with or go with her to church.

The Auxiliary and members of the Harold D. Speakman, Post 356, American Legion, Narberth, Pa., wish to extend a special invitation to all others of ex-service men and women to attend the Mother's Day services to be held in the respective churches.

RESOLUTION

Presented by American Legion Auxiliary, Harold D. Speakman, Post 356

WHEREAS our flag is symbolical of the sovereignty of the United States of America which stands for liberty and justice for all, and

WHEREAS, this sacred emblem is dear to the heart of every liberty loving man, woman, and child in our land, and

WHEREAS a display of the flag is a pledge of fealty to those institutions it represents,

Be it therefore resolved that the citizens of this community be earnestly urged to display the flag on such days and on such occasions as have been set by the Congress of the United States to commemorate events important in the evolution and preservation of our union. At such times as set by proclamations of the President of the United States, the Governor of our State, or the Burgess of our Borough, and

Further be it resolved that on all such occasions the flag be treated with that solemnity that a full and awakened consciousness of all that it represents would demand, and that a copy of flag rules be placed in the hands of every child of school age, that the cooperation of the teachers of our schools, the ministers of our churches, and officers of our Borough be enlisted in awakening a community conscience against selfishness and indifference on days when the flag is or should be displayed, and that copies of this resolution be placed in the hands of our chief Burgess, the ministers of the various churches, the President of the School Board, the superintendent of the schools, the President of the Home and School Association, and published in "Our Town."

Everything Ready For Scout Minstrel Show and Dance

Annual Event Slated For Next Friday Evening

The Narberth Boy Scouts are all ready for their big Minstrel Show, Dance and Banquet, which will be given in Elm Hall on Friday evening, May 19th. The proceeds are to defray the expenses of the local troop at the In-struction Camp this summer. Tickets will be 50 cents.

This is the fourth year that the scouts are giving a show of this kind, and it is to be hoped that the attendance will warrant the effort, and are being put into it by the boys.

The costumes have been ordered from Van Horn's, the costumers of Philadelphia, and will exceed those of previous years.

The work of the Narberth troop of Boy Scouts deserves the greatest encouragement from people of the town. A large audience, as in the past, is expected to spend an enjoyable evening next Friday at Elm Hall.

Prizes

Prizes will be awarded the Scouts in the night of the Minstrel Show. Since September 1st, 1921, the Narberth Boy Scouts have been running an efficiency contest, receiving points for the following:

Attendance at Scout Meetings;
Attendance at Parent Meetings;
Attendance at Sunday School or Church;
School Average;
Second Class Tests;

PONY SHOW

Scouts of Main Line children, both boys and girls fifteen years of age and younger, will take part in the pony show section of the big program to be given at the William J. Clothier estate in Wynnewood on May 17th, for the benefit of the Welfare Federation.

Those Main Line children, sons and daughters of the huntsmen and huntswomen of the Radnor and Rose Tree Hunts, among others, learn to ride almost as soon as they are weaned, and some youngsters of very tender age will be seen in the ring at the exhibition. In fact, some of the children would be almost eligible, as years go, to enter first in the baby show feature and later ride their ponies in the other contest.

The pony show will include some of the spectacular events characterizing horse shows in general. Class No. 8, for instance, the Open Jumping Class, is open to ponies or hunters, and the hurdles will be set at 3 feet 8 or 10.

Some of the youngsters are said to have almost as good "hands" as their elders when it comes to guiding spirited horses over the tankard.

The pony show is in charge of a committee headed by Mrs. Victor C. Mather, and its other members are Mrs. Alexander Brown, Mrs. G. Dallas Dixon, Jr., Mrs. Walter M. Jeffords, Mrs. Gilbert Mather, Mrs. Paul Denkla Mills, Mrs. Richard G. Wood.

The Wynnewood program is really a five-ring circus consisting of a pony show, a dog show, a fashion show, and a doll show. These are in addition to numerous other features, such as pony, dog, and goat rides, a midway, Punch and Judy, fortune telling, silhouettes cutting, a farmer's market, cafeteria, cake, candy and ice cream table, a boy scout drill, sketches by famous artists, and dancing.

The contestants in the pony show stand a chance of first, second, and third prizes. The first prize will be a cup or other trophy, and ribbons will be awarded for second and third places.

THE IMPROVEMENT OF EYESORES

A quite definite community problem is created by the existence of an attractive and ugly buildings. Most cities and towns have their share of structures of this type. They often stand in conspicuous positions near automobile routes and railroad lines. They are noticed by visitors, and they give strangers unfavorable impressions.

Some of these buildings are simply dingy, and need coats of paint. Applying a pleasing color would work wonders and turn a decrepit looking spot into a scene that appears alive and hopeful.

In others the whole structure is rickety, and needs either thorough repairs, or else to be removed altogether. Yet the people who own such properties will sometimes do nothing to improve them, and they seem indifferent to their appearance.

The community's interest in such matters ought to be considered. It seems unfair that a pall of dinginess should be thrown over a neighborhood, just because one property owner is neglectful.

Public sentiment has not yet reached the point where an owner could be required to keep buildings in good condition. It may come to that some time. But business and civic organizations might well remonstrate with real estate owners who fail to cooperate with town advancement by maintaining their own property creditably. The owners of course may say that they are unable to afford improvements at present costs. But it can usually be shown that poorly maintained property is a poor investment, and that better care brings returns.

A little frank talk by industrial citizens with people who neglect their holdings, has often resulted in the improvements that the neighbors desired. Possibly there are some owners in Narberth to whom the tactful hint should be dropped that shabby appearing property hampers the progress of a community.

BISHOP KENRICK COUNCIL, K. O. C., HAS MANY IMPORTANT EVENTS SCHEDULED

On Sunday afternoon, June 11th, Bishop Kenrick Council, K. O. C. of Ardmore, will give the third degree to a large class of candidates of the Twenty-third District in St. Katharine's Hall, Wayne. Arrangements are under way for a real big day, and as this is the first major degree to be given under the auspices of the Ardmore Council, no time will be left unutilized to make the ceremony a "red letter" occasion in the annals of the Twenty-third District.

A number of new members received their first degree on last Friday evening, and will receive their second degree on Monday evening, May 15th, at the headquarters of Brownson Council, Broad and Master streets, Philadelphia, in conjunction with a number of Brownson candidates.

As a fitting anniversary of Bishop Kenrick Council's first birthday, its chaplain, the Rev. F. L. Partell, is arranging for a Pontifical Mass at St. John's Church, Ardmore, at 10:30 on Sunday, May 28th. The Women's Club of Ardmore will be the scene of an anniversary banquet and entertainment on Monday evening, May 29th.

March athletic activity is promised in the near future through the organization of an Athletic Association composed of Councils in and around Philadelphia, and in order to get a line on prospective participants in the various branches of sport, the Council's Athletic Committee held a smoker on Thursday evening. The principal speaker of the evening was Father O'Mara, Vice President of Villa Nova College, who delivered an inspiring talk on the value of athletics.

AMERICAN RED CROSS

The Red Cross Workers and the Public in general:

Garments for next winter's use are very important, so the Chapter can have a good supply on hand, ready for use at the first breath of cold weather.

Let each person, in making his or her donation, take pride in the fact that every article is ready to give comfort to some man who lost his health in their service. Overcoats, suits, trousers, shirts, underwear, shoes, etc., will be accepted, and all be most acceptable, as well as articles of clothing for the family.

Send such garments as you have which are clean and in perfectly good repair to Chapter Headquarters, 218 South 19th street, where they will be stored and distributed when and where needed.

A large attendance is urged in order that women may be qualified to give correct information as to how to mark ballot the following day at the primary election.

THE TOWER OF BABBLE

By Collum Righter

For the benefit of nobly in particular and everybody in general, the Column begs leave to submit that on May 11th, our esteemed townsmen, Hon. Ned Macclump, was at Grand Canyon, Arizona.

On the tender passive with which he considered us from whence, he spoke is follows: "Long may the visitor enter upon the verge, powerless to shake loose from the charms, tirelessly intent upon the silent transformations, with the sun is low in the West. Then the canyon sinks into mysterious purple shadow, darkness falls, and should there be a moon, the scene in part receives in silver light, a thousand spectral forms projected from inscrutable gorges." To all of which we cordially concede, agree and so forth, having seen his place.

But what bothers us is simply that the beloved, innocent fellow, raves so over a badly pile of Arizona rocks, what, oh what, will he say when he plants foot again on his native heath and views it in all the glorious spring foliage and emerald verdure blazoned with sheep, manure and home meal? We wonder, will he be the first time they ever have. Yes, the very first time.

There is absolutely no mystery at all about Edward Davis's action in disposing of his newspaper route. Since the inauguration of the Column the sale of "Our Town" has increased by such leaps and bounds that it has kept the whole family busy shooting copies over the counter. But with it all, our affairs remain unaltered. Oh, the fearlessness of "them Editors."

That the popularity of the Column still grows, was made manifest this past week by the pleasing tender of one bunch of succulent asparagus and sundry stalks of delicious rhubarb, both and all of which we hereby publicly and thankfully acknowledge. Should we have been asked to suggest an appropriate hymn tune with which to have solemnized the presentation, we would have chosen, "Still there's more to follow."

This "Rose Maiden" continues to perturb our ordinarily smooth-running mental processes. Who is she anyway? Is Henry keeping something from us or is it merely the natural antipathy that should exist between the King of the Dahlias and the Queen of the Tower Fairies?

Not so long since, a townsman boldly accused us of exclusiveness, aloofness and a lot of other things signifying an abhorrence of that friendly camaraderie for which we have always been noted. Well, we may be a bit exclusive but we haven't carried it to the extreme of laying a private lake down Jersey way like our esteemed silver haired real estate magnate on Chestnut Avenue.

The Civic Association's Thirty Points on cleanup contained many items of interest. Point No. 7 related to applying soap and water to woodwork. This particular point could well have been stretched to include an application of these cleaning agents to some of the future mainstays of the Community. We see a good many of them early in the morning and pon our honor, they appear to enry with them the unclean roads, faces and wearing apparel of the day previous. Why not scour the roads as well.

The Column takes this opportunity to felicitate Hon. Bob Pattison upon the recent additional income tax exemption bestowed on him by the esteemed, Stark. The best that we can wish is that Thomas Woolford will be none the less a chip of the old block than his daddy is.

Within the last ten minutes our advice was solicited in the matter of taking in a silk dress around the waist line. We studied the problem carefully and then made a suggestion which to our mind seemed well founded and feasible, only to be looked at in disgust and told in no gentle tones that we knew absolutely nothing about dress making. That may be all very well, but we are a good judge of the finished product and we most emphatically off our lid to the cute little bobbed headed blonde miss who passes our porch ever and anon, garbed in a frayed skirted sport suit of light brown, dainty little mahogany-saddled sport shoes and dangling green earrings, and sometimes (we hope she sees this) to white a nose. Why paint the lily, ask we.

ROBERT E. PATTISON, JR.

The American Issue, official organ of the Pennsylvania Anti-Saloon League, which is edited by our fellow townsman, Harry M. Chalfant, carried in last week's number the face of Robert E. Pattison and appealed to the Democrats of the State to get back of him in his candidacy for the nomination of Lieutenant-Governor.

The American Issue has a circulation of over forty thousand and reaches every section of the State. It is widely quoted by local newspapers. The article concerning Mr. Pattison is as follows:

We desire to call the attention of all our friends who are enrolled as Democrats to the fact that there is a contest in that party over the nomination of a candidate for Lieutenant-Governor. The three candidates are Robert E. Pattison, Charles D. McAvoy and James P. Bracken. The Democrats ought to have no hesitancy in nominating Robert E. Pattison. Mr. Pattison is a traveling salesman and is widely known over the State. He is a young man of exemplary Christian character. He is right on the question of law enforcement and has strong convictions on all questions involving moral and civic decency. He is thirty-four years of age and is the only son of the late Governor Robert E. Pattison. He is worthy in every way to bear that honored name and his nomination for the office of Lieutenant-Governor would make the Democratic ticket vastly stronger than it could be through the nomination of either of his wet opponents. We trust every reader of the American Issue will recommend to your Democratic friends that they give a lift to "Young Bob."

BOYS' BALL TEAM

The Narberth Catholic Boys' Club has reorganized their base ball team and expect a good season. The players have shown a great improvement since the first game they played and lost to the South Side team. The pitchers, T. Campbell and T. Manning, have improved greatly since last year and have pitched some good games this season, but the team does not give them the support which they should receive. With either Manning or Campbell in the pitcher's box, and either Lanahan or Hopkins behind the bat, the team is almost unbeatable. J. Herrschelt and J. Whitt are both playing a fine game at first. J. Mulligan has shown himself superior to anyone else in the club. Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Women's at short stop. Matt Callahan is a fine third baseman and also a good hitter. In right field P. Erdman stars as well as B. Lanahan in center and George Torchianna in left field. Other fielders are D. Speck, W. Torchianna, G. Burgess, G. McGuire. On the whole, the hitting and fielding of the team is not so good as it ought to be, but is improving very rapidly.

So far the team has a very poor average, winning 2 out of 6 games, but they expect to do better in the future. The team is without a coach, but Mr. Chas. Becker has offered his assistance which is appreciated very much by the club.

On last Saturday the team played a double header with the Emmon Catholic Club of Philadelphia and won the first and hardest game by a score of 12 to 11, and lost the second by a score of 7 to 1. Manning showed himself a good pitcher when he struck out 12 batters of the visiting team, but could not keep up and the visiting team scored a rally which gave them the game. The lineup was as follows:

FLY CAMPAIGN

The General Fly Campaign Committee of the Main Line has reorganized for another campaign against the fly and has engaged an inspector to locate all the fly breeding places.

The inspector will urge the people responsible for the breeding places to clean them up for the sake of their own health as well as the health of others. If they will not cooperate voluntarily, the power of the Boards of Health will be called upon to compel them, as they have the power to eradicate all breeding places of flies. Committees will be formed in all the communities representing the civic organizations, Red Cross, Health Center, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Women's Clubs, Community Clubs, etc., and they will be on the look out for breeding places and report them to the inspector.

The Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts will distribute swatters, posters, and literature to every household.

Dr. Wm. C. Miller, Chief, Division of Public Health Education, State Department of Health, stated, "The success of a Fly Campaign depends upon the destruction of breeding places. Flies breed in filth, therefore, filth should be removed. Ninety per cent. of House Flies are bred in the manure of horse stables and hog pens. Manure should be removed twice a week during the fly season. Privies to which flies have access afford the double danger of offering a breeding place and focus for the spread of disease."

The various Boards of Health will cooperate as well as the Superintendent of the public schools.

The Committee consists of: J. Heron, Chairman.

DANGEROUS INSECTS.

The State Department of Agriculture has drawn the attention of the Landscape Committee of the Suburban Association to insects which infest the oak trees. This warning should be heeded by residents along the Main Line in order that the beautiful trees, for which the territory is noted, may be preserved.

There are a number of pests of white oak which may occur on trees in this section of the State; two or three scale insects infesting the twigs and limbs and which may sometimes cause noticeable injury on individual trees by killing the smaller twigs; some leaf mining moths, the larvae of which work beneath the leaf epidermis and kill large areas of the leaf. In summer this injury is usually very conspicuous, as very nearly all the leaves on a tree may be spotted and unsightly. Nearly all the oaks are subject to this insect's attack. Then there are several leaf-feeding caterpillars, such as the tussock moth, which may sometimes cause more or less defoliation. Doubtless, in some cases, individual trees had better be treated when limbs and twigs are covered with scale, even when only a portion of the tree may be seriously infested. On white oak the scale most likely to be found causing injury would be the Golden Oak Scale, which is a small hemispherical greenish-yellow scale causing a pit in the bark where it settles. They sometimes are very numerous on the smaller branches of a tree. The treatment would be a dormant application of Scalecide or lime sulphur.

Mid-summer heat prevailed on the 8th to 11th, when a large excess of temperature accumulated and which was not wiped out by the cool spell that began on the 19th and continued to the 24th. Very little damage appears to have been done by the severe frost on the 22nd. During that night the humidity was much lower than usual and this probably prevented severe damage. By the end of the month a good rain was needed, continual northerly winds causing the ground to become parched and hard.

The lighting effects will be another sensation in up-to-the-minute artistry, and will scintillate with all the newest electrical color schemes and effects; being operated by a master hand, that will add an original tone of elegance to the performance.

The $35,000 Pipe Organ, which has been especially designed to meet the approval of the most celebrated musical critics of the country, will also be a prominent feature. An agreement has been entered into with one of Philadelphia's most prominent organists, whose name we have promised to a third until the installation of the instrument, which, we deeply regret, through unavoidable delays, will not be completed for the opening of the Theatre; but every effort is being expended to have the organ finished at the earliest possible date.

During the absence of the organ, the management has secured an orchestra composed of accomplished musicians selected from the Philadelphia Orchestra, which we believe will be a decided treat for the music-loving public of the Main Line.

The Theatre will provide a comfortable Rest Room for the ladies, on the foyer balcony west; and a Gentlemen's Room on the foyer balcony east.

The architecture, the acoustical treatment, the fresco decorating, carpets, draperies, and furnishings of every kind have been blended into a perfect whole, and faithfully represent the pinnacle of artistic accomplishment and gorgeous splendor.

We do not boast 100 per cent. efficiency, for no undertaking in which the human element is an important factor can be so accurate. What we can and do boast of, however, is an organization which has been slowly and carefully built up, with the purpose of assembling such a staff that can and will at all times register the highest grade of service that may be possible.

Our system of service will be so thoroughly complete, to the minutest detail, that we feel it worthy of enumeration:

There will be an automobile checking and parking service.

A check-room service.

An umbrella service, which means that in the event of a rain occurring during the performance, the patrons may secure an umbrella by leaving a deposit.

A chaperone service, which will take care of the girls from the different schools and colleges, who desire to attend the Theatre.

Special bus service.

Postal service.

Telephone service.

News service.

In fact, the word "service" will be treated with the fullest conception of its meanings.

The new Ardmore Theatre will have the distinction of being the home of premier presentations on the Main Line, and early showings of the world's greatest feature productions and short subject films produced.

The program will always be properly balanced, and varied enough to contain something that will particularly appeal to the individual tastes, and still be in keeping with the approval of the most discriminating clientele.

The attraction will be accompanied by a musical setting which will give the fullest expression to each and every scene.

The entire performance will be elaborately staged, in an atmosphere of perfect decorum and grandeur, and will fairly singe with that elusive quality known as personality.
